

2027 Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant Application Packet

*St. Croix Valley PRCR Rodeo in Glenwood City, WI
August 20th-22nd, 2026*

Application Deadline: July 1st, 2026

Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant Association, Inc.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to organize and put forth the Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant on an annual basis, to select a young lady to be an Ambassador of Good Will and Integrity to promote and further the State of Wisconsin, the sport of rodeo, and the Western way of life.

Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Job Description

The Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant Association is seeking a young woman between the ages of 20-26 that has obtained the age of 21 by November 1st, 2027 and will be no older than 26 as of December 31, 2027. She will be responsible for promoting the sport of rodeo, the state of Wisconsin and our western heritage.

Miss Rodeo Wisconsin works directly with rodeo committees, producers, stock contractors, contract personnel, contestants, sponsors, media and the general public. Duties will include, but are not limited to: Seeking and participating in media interviews, assisting with sponsor promotions and other special events, rodeo grand entries and flag presentations, appearing in parades, making presentations to classrooms and civic organizations; coordinating travel schedules, serving as a role model for youth and signing autographs for current and prospective rodeo fans of all ages, and willingly do whatever is asked to further the sport of rodeo and Wisconsin agriculture.

Successful candidates are highly motivated, goal oriented, self-starting, outgoing, organized and confident, and able to take criticism. The position requires excellent horsemanship skills, a thorough knowledge of horses, rodeo and current events, proficient written and verbal communication skills and a knack for relating to people. This is a public relations job. Experience as a contestant in rodeo and other horse related competitions are helpful but is not essential. Having a sense of humor and a willingness to make new friends will lead to memories for a year you will never forget!

Are you the next Miss Rodeo Wisconsin?

Eligibility Requirements

The Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant Association, INC. will conduct the state Pageant under the guidelines of the Miss Rodeo America Pageant. This allows the winner of the pageant to be eligible to compete in the Miss Rodeo America Pageant upon successful completion of her reign as Miss Rodeo Wisconsin. The Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant Association, Inc. has the authority to make provisions and waive eligibility rules and/or regulation requirements. Contestants shall agree to abide by all of the rules and regulations set forth by the Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant Association, Inc. Failing to meet any of the eligibility rules (without a waiver) will disqualify a contestant from the competition.

Contestant Eligibility: Each contestant in the Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant on the date of competition and final selection of Miss Rodeo Wisconsin will attest the following:

1. I will be 21 years of age by November 1, 2027 and I will be no older than 26 years of age by December 31, 2027. Upon request, I will provide a copy of a government issued identification (such as a birth certificate, driver's license, passport, etc.) verifying my age.
2. I am a female and have always been a female.
3. Must be a resident of Wisconsin. Driver's license proof of residency. Copy of license is required. Must reside in the state (exception for enrollment in out of state college).
4. Must not have previously been, or presently be, married or pregnant. I agree that I am not engaged to be married, nor will I become publicly engaged to be married during my reign.
5. Must execute all consents and/or waivers of liability presented as conditions prior to competition.
6. Shall abide by all rules and regulations of the Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant Association, Inc.
7. Must not have ever been convicted of a crime nor be nor have been involved in any criminal activity or criminal litigation. Background checks will be conducted.

Any contestant not meeting the qualifications set forth above shall be denied the right to compete in the Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant.

Rules and Regulations

Contestants competing for the title of Miss Rodeo Wisconsin will be required to abide by the rules and regulations stated below.

1. Contestants must meet all eligibility requirements. (See separate requirement page)
Contestants must sign Waiver of Liability and complete an application form.
2. Contestants must conduct themselves in a proper lady-like manner and portray high moral standards. Contestants will not be permitted to drink/possess alcoholic beverages, smoke, use drugs, use foul language, or public displays of affection at any time during the pageant. Doing so may result in your dismissal from the pageant.
3. Each contestant is required to submit one of the following:
 - A. Non-refundable $200.00 entry fee
 - B. $250 sponsorship for MRWIPA. Sponsor will be announced at horsemanship, fashion show, coronation, and logo will be placed on contestant autograph sheets.
 - C. Mail $200 entry fee with application and have it refunded after selling 50/50 tickets from 6:00P.M.-10:00P.M. at one performance of the Heart of the North Spooner Rodeo.
4. In the event that a contestant is selected Miss Rodeo Wisconsin, she will be required to sign a contract with Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Association, Inc. This will happen at an agreed upon time shortly after the end of the contest.
5. Contestants must provide their own wardrobe and agree to follow the wardrobe guidelines.
6. A contestant, or any individual related to a contestant, must not approach Judges with the intent to influence or harass. Action of this type will be reported to the Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant Committee and disqualification of that contestant could result.
7. The Contestant must be available to participate in the Pageant during its entirety. Also must be able to participate in any type of promotions, advertising appearances, meetings or events that may be called prior to the pageant.
8. The contestant winning the title of Miss Rodeo Wisconsin must be available to promote and advertise for the Pageant for the entire year of her reign, as well as compete in the Miss Rodeo America Pageant representing the state of Wisconsin.

9. The Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant Association, Inc. expects each contestant to display the highest degree of sportsmanship during the pageant and particularly following the Coronation ceremony. Each contestant should be mindful that she is representing her hometown, her sponsors, the Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant Association, Inc. and the sport of Professional Rodeo. Poor, un-sportsman-like conduct will not be tolerated and could result in the contestant being disqualified and may affect future eligibility to compete in the Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant.

10. No score sheets will be returned; however, judges comment sheets will be mailed or emailed after the pageant if available.

11. Contestants in the MRWI Pageant are required to pay all expenses associated with the pageant including but not limited to transportation, hotel, meals, etc. The Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant will provide the contestant banners, to be worn by participants during the Pageant.

12. Parents, relatives, and friends of MRWI Pageant Contestants are welcome to attend certain events at which contestants will be present and must sit in the spectator areas. This also includes horsemanship.

13. Judging will take precedence over all pageant activities. It will begin at the registration of the contestants and continue throughout the pageant.

14. In the event there is only one contestant competing, the contestant must score an 80% overall or higher to be named Miss Rodeo Wisconsin. A score of 80% or higher in each category will also be needed to win a category.

Pageant Categories

Horsemanship- 160 Points Total- The purpose of this division is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

- Horsemanship-to include control of mount and the way any situation which may occur is handled
- Balance- ability to sit a saddle
- Position of hands, feet and seat
- Mounting and dismounting
- The understanding and skill of the contestant will be judged and not the horse or the equipment.

Knowledge and Presentation- 115 Points Total- - The purpose of this division is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

- Knowledge- well studied and understands the areas of rodeo, equine, animal welfare, topics related to agriculture and current events. Information contestants should be familiar with, but are not limited to, are PRCA rules, PRCA standings, PRCA notables, equine tack, politics, U.S. news, world news, equine anatomy, equine ailments
- Presentation- ability to handle all competition situations with poise and maturity. Preparedness for events. Self-control and confidence while speaking in public or interacting with others. Exhibiting grace and class while being flexible in and out of the public eye.

Personality- 170 Points Total - The purpose of this division is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

- Intelligence- good common sense
- Education- conversational ability in rodeo, agriculture and other areas, with special emphasis on grammar and enunciation
- Attractiveness- not necessarily to mean beauty in this sense, but rather should note whether the contestant radiates self-confidence without making an issue out of it. She should also show maturity, high moral standards, sincerity and integrity
- Personality Reflections- to include the contestant's style of attire, overall appearance, magnetism and eye appeal
- Genuine interest in other people, in the pageant, agriculture and in rodeo, and a noticeable consideration for others

- Self-Projection- ability to project one's personality, whether it be from horseback in the arena, on television, or before an audience. Also, to be considered are sense of humor, showmanship, ambition, desire and enthusiasm
- Happy outlook on life in general
- Promptness in keeping pageant schedule
- Public Appearances- includes public appearances of contestants, giving them an opportunity to speak to an audience with facts and interesting information about their hometown, and/or their state. These appearances may be made at western fashion shows, civic group luncheon programs, agriculture expos and events, evening meetings, banquets, etc. Contestants will be expected to answer questions prepared in advance by the MRW Pageant Board and judges. Some possible subjects include; rodeo terms to define, rodeo events to explain, extemporaneous questions, all of which require the contestant to think "on her feet," and show maturity, intelligence, wisdom and imagination.

Appearance- 125 Points Total - The purpose of this division is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

- Attractiveness
- Grooming- to include neatness and cleanliness in every detail, such as complexion, hands, fingernails, hair, hat, boots and other wearing apparel. Meticulous care in general grooming is essential for a young lady to be considered as Miss Rodeo Wisconsin.
- Photogenic Quality- photographs used for the photogenic competition will be the photos submitted by the contestants and photos taken by official pageant photographer. A young lady's strength of character and personality are reflected strongly in a wholesome appearance through photography
- Poise and Posture- lady-like behavior in every situation
- Knowledge of Proper Western Attire- contestants should be aware of fashionable western dress, with particular attention given to color coordination (contestants should know how color combinations can enhance the appearance and eye appeal). Judges will be observing how a contestant's clothes fit and suit her personality. Contestants are expected to appear in "full western attire" at all times, unless otherwise specified. i.e. western dress, western skirt and blouse or jacket combination, or WRANGLER pant product with western blouse and/or jacket. All outfits should include western hat, boots, belt, and contestant banner.
- Dresses, skirts and blouses should reflect a western image. Evening gowns/cocktail type dresses are not acceptable. Garments must exhibit a western image
- It is not necessary to invest in an excessive amount of expensive clothing. Judges will be looking for versatility and imagination displayed by contestants.
- Contestants should be knowledgeable on current trends in western wear manufacturing and Miss Rodeo America, Inc. apparel sponsors

Photogenic Quality 50 Points Total – The photographs submitted by the contestants and photos taken by the pageant photographer will be provided to the judges to score. Photogenic points will be divided between the appearance and personality category. No overall award will be given for photogenics.

Written Test - 100 Points Total – Each contestant will take a written test based off of, but not limited, to PRCA rules, regulations, rodeo history, horsemanship knowledge, equine science, rodeo terms, etc. The contestant who answers the most questions correctly will win the written test award.

Judged Events

Horsemanship- There will be two go-rounds of the horsemanship competition. The first will be one of the three patterns found in this packet. It will be selected by the judges prior to horsemanship. Contestant will ride their own horse in the first round. The second round the contestants will draw a second horse. No contestant will ride the same horse twice. Contestants will be required to complete a series of five elements in the following order:

1. Large, fast circle
2. Small, slow circle
3. Stop
4. Back up one horse length
5. Presentation run

At the discretion of the judges patterns may be altered. Contestants may also be required to dismount and remount, carry a flag and/or perform additional maneuvers on horseback. Contestants may or may not be asked to do a presentation ride following completion of one of their patterns. Any changes and/or alterations to the horsemanship patterns will be announced to the contestants before the horsemanship competition begins. The patterns will be demonstrated by the reigning Miss Rodeo Wisconsin.

Dress Code: Contestants will wear a WRANGLER brand pant product, form fitting blouse or shirt with long-sleeves, shirt tail tucked in, boots and hat. No vests, jackets, spurs, or chaps. Any accessories may be used. All riding attire should be neat and fit properly.

Public Speaking-

Extemporaneous Speech- Each contestant will choose from topics provided by the MRWIPA. There will be ten minutes for each contestant to prepare a minute and a half speech. Judging is based on content, delivery, relevancy to topic, and the time allotted for the presentation. Judging is also based on knowledge, poise, professionalism and delivery. Extemporaneous Questions- Extemporaneous questions will be asked of each contestant during pageant functions. Questions may relate to the sport of professional rodeo, agriculture, and/or current events.

Community Involvement- There will be community interactions between contestants, children and the general public where the contestants will be displaying their public relations skills. Examples may include: radio interviews, library readings, autograph signing.

Modeling- Contestants will participate in at least one fashion show.

Dress Code: There will be two different outfits worn at the fashion show. The first outfit worn will be a western dress or skirt and jacket combination. It does not have to be leather but western in style.

Contestants must wear cowboy boots and cowboy hat. The second outfit contestants will wear is a fashion forward outfit. It should be an outfit they would be seen wearing to a social event. Cowboy hat and cowboy boots are to be worn with the fashion forward outfit. The outfit should reflect the contestants' personality and style.

Interviews- Each contestant will be interviewed privately by the judges. Questions asked will test the contestant's knowledge of the pageant, professional rodeo, horsemanship, and current state and national affairs. Each contestant may be interviewed on each of the following categories; knowledge of tack, horse care, feeding, diseases, anatomy, etc.; knowledge of professional rodeo- its history, organization, rodeo terminology, explanation of standard events, awareness of PRCA and WPRA championship standings, and goings-on in the pro rodeo world.

Dress Code: Contestants must wear a Wrangler pant product, boots, and cowboy hat. They may wear either a long sleeve shirt with collar and cuffs, a vest with a long sleeve shirt with collar and cuffs, or a jacket with collar and cuffs.

Written Test- Judges will not be present. It will be supervised by a MRWI Board member. The only scores taken during the written test are knowledge.

Contestants will also ride in two rodeo performances. At all rodeo performances and pre-rodeo show contestants must wear a western shirt, pants, boots, and cowboy hat. No chaps.

MRWI Pageant Judging Guidelines

- The Miss Rodeo Wisconsin Pageant is judged in six categories: Horsemanship (160), Personality (170), Appearance (125), Knowledge & Presentation(115), written test (100), and Photogenics (50). The scores from all events will be broken down into these categories. Judges may be awarded 10 extra points to use at their discretion at the end of the pageant. These are not totaled with the category points, but may affect the final winner.
- Three judges will judge all categories of the pageant. In some cases different judges will judge different events, but all events will have three judges. All three scores will be totaled for each contestant each time they are judged.
- Judges are selected for their expertise in all fields of the competition.
- All decisions of the judges are final.
- MRWI Executive Board shall have the final decision as to the selection of judges for the MRWI Pageant.
- In the event of any dispute concerning the decision of the judges, such dispute shall be settled by the grievance committee of 2 members of the Board of Directors and one from the general membership. The review of any dispute shall be limited to determining if the judges acted in good faith, impartially, and in accordance with the applicable rules. If any judge is found to have acted in violation of these rules the MRWPA Board, in their discretion, may remove such judge and may take any other remedial action they deem appropriate. All decisions of the MRWPA Board are final.

Scoring Guidelines

The contestant receiving the highest grand total score for the week shall be crowned Miss Rodeo Wisconsin. The contestant receiving the third highest grand total shall be second Runner-up. Ties for category winners will be broken by referring back to Judge #1's score will break the tie. If a tie still remains Judge #2's score will be used.. and so on until the tie is broken. A tie for Miss Rodeo Wisconsin and runners-up will be broken by the horsemanship scores. Score sheets will not be given to the contestants, but judges' written comments will be.
