

a locals guide to breakfast & brunch

where we'd meet you for breakfast.

Sacramento our hometown picks

slow mornings, good coffee, no rush —

Tower Cafe

Land Park

GLOBAL MENU · FAMOUS FRENCH TOAST

An only-in-Sacramento spot beside the iconic Tower Theatre, The menu travels the globe, the patio is lush and leafy, and the famous French toast — custard-soaked and decadent — is worth the trip on its own. A true local landmark.

Bacon & Butter

Tahoe Park

FARM-TO-FORK · EXPECT A LINE

One of Sacramento's most-loved brunch spots — and it knows it (weekend lines run out the door, but oh, it's worth it). Scratch-made, farm-to-fork plates: biscuits under bacon gravy, the famous pancakes, a grilled-cheese Benedict. Get there early.

The Mimosa House

East Sac

The East Sac staple for when you're in a celebrating mood. Famous for 50 + mimosa varieties — get the flight to try a few — plus all the brunch classics. Lively, friendly, and made for catching up over a long table.

Placer County up the hill

from Roseville out to the foothills —

Four Sisters Cafe

Roseville

MADE FROM SCRATCH · SISTER-RUN

A beloved Roseville favorite run by four sisters since 2012 — a sister act, which feels just right to us. Everything's from scratch, from the in-house-cured bacon to the daily batters, and the famous Mancakes keep regulars lined up. Cozy, busy, full of heart.

Flower Farm Cafe

Loomis

INSIDE A FLOWER NURSERY · GARDEN PATIO

The dreamiest setting on this list. A cozy café tucked inside a flower nursery and citrus orchard — homemade pastries, a from-the-farm menu, and a garden patio by the pond. Brunch, then wander the gardens and pick up flowers on your way out.

Awful Annie's

Auburn

FOOTHILL CLASSIC · PATIO

The classic foothill breakfast, hands down. A laid-back Auburn institution with a patio, fresh mountain air, and big plates of comfort food. The kind of place you land after a morning on the Auburn trails — or make the whole reason you drove up.

COZY MODERN SIT-DOWN

Modern, cozy, and a little special — the house potatoes get raved about, the eggs Benedict is done right, and the pistachio French toast is the thing people come back for. A lovely sit-down treat.

El Dorado Hills a little dressed up when brunch deserves to feel like an occasion —

Sienna

El Dorado Hills

ELEVATED BRUNCH

The dressed-up pick, up the hill in El Dorado Hills. Warm ambiance and an elevated menu with standouts like the prime rib Benedict and a crème brûlée berry French toast. Perfect for a birthday, a celebration, or a slow, lingering weekend morning.
