

DAY-OF STATIONERY PRICE SHEET

Our day-of stationery items are currently ONLY available to those who have previously purchased the matching Save the Date or Wedding Suite.

Because each of the unique nature of day-of stationery, we will be working via a custom proposal proces. This way we can ensure you are getting everything you need, in the correct quantity and color choices. If you'd like to get an idea of the pricing, please see the estimates below.

Pricing is subject to change at anytime due to materials increase, production schedules and rush fees*

 If you previously ordered any artwork upgrades (venue illustration, color change, etc.) you can add them to your day-of stationery for no extra charge!*

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

How many should we order?

Remember when it comes to day-of items, you are working off a guest count, rather than a household count. Unlike the Save the Dates and Wedding Suite, we are allowing smaller incremental orders to allow for a more accurate count. We also highly recommend ordering about 10 extra pieces than you need just in case there are last minute changes!

What does the pricing include?

Pricing includes the design time, two rounds of revisions, and the final printed materials + shipping fees. Please note that the pricing does not reflect any rush scheduled (anything faster than 4 weeks), or any embellishments.

I previously ordered a venue illustration, can I add it to my day-of stationery?

Yes! Any previously completed artwork (monogram, venue illustration, etc.) can be added to your day of stationery free of charge.

I don't see an item that I need, can I add it on?

We will take and added designs/pieces case by case basis to ensure we have enough time to complete them. Please ask before ordering as last minute add-ons will likely not be viable to ensure production schedules.

How far in advance do I need to order my day-of items?

Our current turn around time is about 25 business days/5ish weeks from the purchase date to when you will have them in hand. Anything faster will need incur a rush fee to ensure delivery by your wedding date.

Can I add embellishments to my day-of stationery, like wax seals?

Yes! You can either purchase the upgrade directly from our embellishments shop or just let us know which items you would like to add and we can be sure to include it on the invoice.
