Shack Approved Catering Partners

We have a curated, but varied approved list for day to evening catering.

If you choose from this list, you'll be working with caterers that are trustworthy and reliable. They're Shack Approved and we highly rate both the quality of their food, but also their service on the day.

You can find this list here:

You don't pay us a thing to use one of these caterers

We're always looking at ways to make this list better, if there's something missing, please let us know!
