SKIN STUDIO

Aesthetic Provider Job Posting

We are a medical aesthetics & skin health studio bringing high-end transformative treatments to Danville, PA. Our team is growing and we are transitioning to move into a larger space that will be our forever home! We are looking for someone driven, confident, passionate about aesthetics, and eager to learn and grow.

What You'll Do:

- Perform injectable treatments (neurotoxin, dermal fillers, biostimulators, PRP), skincare consultations, microneedling, chemical peels, and laser / resurfacing services once trained
- Educate patients about treatment plans, skincare, and maintenance with confidence
- Build and manage your patient book through exceptional care and follow-up
- Collaborate with the team to develop treatment plans aligned with Revival's natural results philosophy
- Maintain accurate charting and documentation
- Contribute to a warm, welcoming environment where patients feel valued
- Adapt and problem-solve in real time while ensuring patient safety
- Bring new treatment ideas, package concepts, and creative approaches to the team
- Create and share basic social media content to educate patients and support practice growth
- Continue learning and pursuing growth in aesthetic practices

Who You Are:

- Authentic, kind, humble, and eager to connect with patients
- Genuinely believes in the treatments you provide and aligns with our core values
- Passionate about skincare and sharing knowledge with patients
- Welcoming and respectful to people from all backgrounds
- Highly motivated with strong internal drive to learn, grow, and build your books with consistency
- Passionate about anatomy, trainings, and staying current with advancements in aesthetic medicine
- Understands that building a patient book takes time and is willing to invest in the process
- Confident in patient interactions while maintaining a warm, approachable and empathetic demeanor
- Open to receiving aesthetic treatments to understand the patient experience
- A team player who thrives in a collaborative fast paced environment
- A proactive problem-solver who brings solutions
- Creative and innovative, eager to contribute to practice growth
- Comfortable using social media and being on camera to educate, showcase work, and expertise
- Resilient and adaptable, open to feedback

Position Details:

- Full Time & Part Time
- Competitive pay with additional bonus incentives
- Team Perks offered exclusively to our full time employees
- Flexible daytime schedule within our business hours
- Supervision provided by our medical director
- Supportive, positive team culture with growth opportunities
- Staff treatment days and excellent team culture

Requirements:

- Active and valid RN, NP, or PA-C license
- Minimum of two years of professional experience under your medical license
- Aesthetics experience strongly preferred but not required; we are excited to train the right candidate

How to Apply - please follow ALL steps below:

1. Send your resume to hello@revivalskinstudio.com
3. Please also include a cover letter that talks about what draws you to Rēvival Skin Studio and share something you think our team would enjoy learning about you (it doesn't have to be related to work).

Applications without a video will not be considered. This helps us learn more about you! We are so excited to meet genuine passionate candidates!
