

Gladly Gather

MAKE YOURSELF AT HOME

The Gladly Gather Community Space

A bright, welcoming room for get-togethers and good company.

2026 EVENT RENTAL GUIDE

YOU ARE WELCOME HERE

A space that celebrates belonging.

Gladly Gather is the retail store and community space of Oh Happy Dani, an illustration-focused lifestyle brand that creates joyful art and experiences for everyday advocates. We're a space to meet, create, celebrate, learn, and organize.

We believe that intentional, values-based spaces should also be accessible. Whether you're planning a workshop, author talk, party, or book club meeting, we want to make it easy to gather well.

Our space is warm, flexible, and one-of-a-kind. We offer affordable rates for nonprofits, grassroots organizers, and community groups, as well as additional tiers for small businesses and private events. Our space has step-free entry and a private entrance for event guests.
