about

the stylist

Hi I'm Rose Anjinee Yves, or just call me Ray. I'm a stylist, content creator, fashion lover, and women supporter. Currently making magic in Pennsylvania and other parts of the world. My passion is creating work that centers on supporting and empowering my fellow women, self-love, centering on joy, social impact, and authentic energy. I share all my life experience through fashion, travel and other everyday experiences.

At a young age I struggled with self-esteem and self love. At an early age I started dieting because I believed I was not beautiful I was too big. I could not fall in love with my facial features. I did not know how to dress my curvy body, in my young mind I thought I had to be skinny, with long straight hair. Media portrays these images as beauty standards. It took me years to fall in love with ME, with my beauty and my body. Now that I have embraced my beauty, i am able to dress and be confident in my skin. I have become the best version of ME. Now I want to empower an encourage other women to love themselves.

what we do

the joys of my heart!

I have been enjoying fashion and creating for many years. Just started this new journey of styling. It's my passion helping women find their style or find different ways to style certain pieces in their closet. I want women to see themselves, feel confident and empowered. Honestly it took me years to figure out my personal style, with a lot of trial and error. I want to take away the years of trial and error and help you find your ideal style identity. Let me take the guessing game out of it for you ;)
