Guide Dog and Service Animals

The business provides the following services for services animals:

We welcome enquiries from couples who require a service animal. Because our elopements take place in national parks and state forests, the presence of service animals is assessed on a case-by-case basis. Considerations include park regulations, environmental protection requirements, accessibility of the location, vehicle transport limitations, and the nature of the planned activities. We encourage couples to contact us early so we can confirm whether a service animal can be safely and legally accommodated for their chosen experience.

- In addition, the following further information can assist guests:

We work with a range of businesses across the south west. We don't have any exclusivity arrangements with specific businesses and may be coordinating with vendors that are able to work with specific requests provided by the clients.

ADVENTURE ACTIVITIES

Adventure activities

The adventure activities have the following facilities/amenities in place

- Our adventure activities cater for people with a disability
- In addition, the following further information can assist guests:

We aim to be as inclusive as possible and welcome enquiries from couples with disabilities. Due to the remote and rugged nature of our elopement locations, we have limited capacity to accommodate mobility-related disabilities. However, we are often able to support couples with certain neurological or non-mobility disabilities, depending on individual needs. We encourage couples to reach out so we can discuss options and assess what may be possible for their unique circumstances

- In addition, the following further information can assist guests:

We do not have any equipment available to us

- In addition, the following further information can assist guests:

Because our ceremonies take place in remote, wild locations, access can be challenging. Terrain is often uneven, steep, or unpaved, and travel typically involves a 4WD vehicle with limited space and no wheelchair access. As a result, we are generally unable to accommodate guests or couples with significant mobility impairments requiring aids such as wheelchairs, walkers, or assistance with transfers.
