CHERRI MALEY

General Manager, Messina Inn & Wimberley Getaways

Cherri Maley is a seasoned hospitality professional with more than a decade of experience in vacation rentals and over 13 years in weddings, catering, and event management. As General Manager of Messina Inn, she carries forward her family's legacy as part of an eighth-generation Texas family business, working alongside her grandmother, owner Sibyl Burrows, and other relatives to welcome guests with genuine Hill Country warmth.

As both a Certified Meeting and Event Planner and a Certified Wedding Coordinator, Cherri brings a rare balance of expertise and genuine care to every guest experience and celebration. Her leadership extends beyond the inn, as she serves as Chair of the Lodging & Event Section of the Tourism Committee for the Wimberley Valley Chamber of Commerce. In this role, she leads the Chamber's annual Venue Crawl showcase—the largest wedding venue tour of its kind in Texas—while also championing the growth of local tourism and community partnerships.
