THE APPROACH

I photograph events quietly, capturing the room as it unfolds - the people, the atmosphere, the details and the moments that give the event its energy.

Most of the work is candid, but I step in when needed to direct natural portraits, stylish group photographs or key guest images without making anything feel forced.

My background in weddings, portraits and brand imagery shapes the way I work: discreet, people-focused and visually polished.

Unscripted moments. Refined direction. Images with atmosphere and intent.
