WAVE SECTIONAL SOFA

A study in movement, balance, and sculptural comfort, the Wave Sectional unfolds through generous curves and a continuous, embracing silhouette. Its low, grounded profile is softened by buoyant seat forms, while the sweeping back traces the composition like a fluid architectural gesture.

Designed to be experienced from every angle, Wave blurs the distinction between furniture and sculpture. Rounded islands, tailored upholstery, and softly layered cushions create a refined interplay of precision and ease—inviting conversation, repose, and an intuitive movement through space.

Each element is conceived as both an independent form and part of a larger landscape, allowing Wave to transition from an intimate, curvilinear arrangement to an expansive, serpentine composition. Sensual yet disciplined, monumental yet effortlessly welcoming, the Wave Sectional becomes the poetic center of the room.
