hi friends,

I'm Kait

I'm honored that you've considered me to document one of the most special days of your lives. Being able to capture every detail of your day brings me so much joy. My ultimate goal is to tell the story, start to finish, of your wedding day. I focus on tiny details, intimate moments, and real emotions. When you look back at your wedding photos, my hope is that they make you feel everything you did on that day.

A bit about me - I am based in the beautiful, hot state of Arizona, but available to travel worldwide. I'm a wife and mother to 3 beautiful souls. Being a mother has truly helped me understand just how fleeting life is, and how important freezing every moment in time really is.

The Experience

This isn't just about pretty pictures.

It's about the way your partner looks at you when you don't realize anyone's watching.

It's about the quiet in-between moments, the big belly laughs, and the tears that sneak up on you.

I'm here for all of it.

My approach to photography is grounded in connection. I want you to feel like you can be fully yourself in front of my lens. No forced poses, no fake smiles, no pressure to be anything other than wildly in love and deeply human.

Whether we're hiking to a hidden overlook or dancing barefoot at your reception, my job is to create space for you to be present in your story, and to preserve it beautifully.

You'll get guidance when you need it, space when you don't, and gentle direction that helps you feel confident without ever feeling staged. Every photo I deliver is crafted with care, intention, and a genuine love for the people in it.

If you're looking for a photographer who sees the real, messy, meaningful magic of your love, I think we'll get along just fine!

Unfiltered. Unposed.

Unapologetically you.
