TRANSFORMATIONAL SPEAKER · PRESENCE & AUTHORITY COACH · GENERAL COUNSEL
INTEGRATING CONFIDENCE, COMMUNICATION, AND EMBODIED STYLE FOR LASTING PERSONAL POWER

Raeha Kim, Esq. is a Transformational Speaker, Presence & Authority coach and General Counsel who helps high-achieving individuals embody irresistible presence so they are chosen, not chasing - the kind that is calm, magnetic, and unmistakably authoritative.

Her work centers on a powerful yet often overlooked truth: Presence is not just internal confidence. It is alignment between who you are on the inside and how you show up on the outside. When inner authority and external expression are integrated, people stop performing, stop chasing, and begin to be chosen.

A wife, mother, entrepreneur, cancer survivor, Raeha is a practicing attorney representing international consumer brands across luxury fashion, food and beverage, and retail franchises, bringing a rare depth of credibility and lived experience to everything she does.

Through her own journey of healing and reinvention, Raeha discovered that confidence must be embodied, not just believed. Style became a powerful integration tool; not fashion as trend, but personal style as a physical anchor for authority, identity, and self-trust. Aligning how she felt internally with how she showed up externally became the foundation of her work in presence, communication, and personal magnetism.

With a background spanning law, leadership, coaching, and embodied movement, Raeha brings a rare blend of intellectual rigor and somatic intelligence to the stage. She integrates nervous system regulation, communication mastery, and intentional personal style to help audiences develop calm authority and authentic influence.

Raeha's message resonates deeply with professionals in midlife navigating career pivots, relational disconnection, or a quiet loss of vitality. Her work challenges the cultural narrative that presence, magnetism, and intimacy diminish with age; and offers a grounded, embodied path to reclaim them. Her talks leave audiences centered, energized, and clear, equipped with practical tools to communicate with impact, embody their authority, and align how they live, lead, and relate.
