

Marbled Moment

I do my best work when my office is organized, and these scalloped nesting trays are a beautiful way to do just that. The cheerful colors and swirling marbling pattern are equal parts playful and chic.

From $40; shopinnerchild.com

Made for You

With 20 fabrics to choose from, including florals and gingham, this made-to-order Rosamund swivel chair is an instant favorite. I love the romantic linen skirting that softens the silhouette.

From $1,699; joonloli.com

Flowers to Last

Fine artist Inslee Fariss is an internationally recognized talent with notable clients that include Oscar de la Renta and Lela Rose. Her watercolor work includes a collection of limited-edition Birth Flower prints, highlighting the blooms that define each month of the year. This marigold represents October—and would make such a thoughtful birthday gift.

$75; shopinslee.com

Catch a Buzz

I love Portland-based Straightaway Cocktails for an easy take on happy hour. The Bees Knees is my favorite, with gin, lemon juice, West Coast honey, and Accompani Blue Dorris liqueur for a subtly sweet sip.

$24 for 4; straightawaycocktails.com

EDITOR'S PICKS

One of the perks of being an editor? I get to discover the latest and greatest in beauty, fashion, and design. Consider this my A-list.

BY KELLI LAMB

Classic Update

Jess Weeth, interior designer and founder of Weeth Home, has launched a freestanding vanity collection with cabinetry leader Tanya Smith-Shiflett of Unique Kitchens & Baths. Each one is fully customizable, from wood finish to paint.

Price Upon Request; uniquekitchensandbaths.com

An Artful Anchor

Lulu and Georgia has partnered with cult-favorite, Canadian lighting studio Huey Light Shop on a striking collection. The artful forms draw inspiration from Parisian apartments and boutique French hotels.

From $205; luluandgeorgia.com

The Source

No time to scour flea markets for vintage art? Olive Ate-liers makes it easy to shop for original pieces online, with a well-curated selection of one-of-a-kind works that will feel as though you collected them over time.

From $595; oliveateliers.com

Life of the Party

I always love interiors styled with pieces that insist your eye pause and linger. Viya's "Tutti Frutti" brass champagne bucket is a splurge—the design is inspired by Cartier, after all—but it's also an unforgettable statement piece.

$3,930; abask.com

Luxe Logic

MADE Treillage is the newest line of tile by celebrity designer Kelly Wearstler for Ann Sacks. Kelly drew inspiration from the quiet romance of landscape architecture, where repetition, geometry, and growth create captivating patterns.

$98/sf; annsacks.kohler.com

Cool Callback

The Alabax flush mount by Schoolhouse takes its cues from fixtures originally found in a 1951 General Electric industrial catalog. This Auburn color would be especially cool in an entryway.

$229; schoolhouse.com

Bright Eyes

Beyond the adorable name, Sunny Start Eye Serum is like an "espresso shot" for tired eyes. A blend of cedar peptides, vitamin C, and even espresso helps reduce puffiness and dark circles in no time.

$52; ursamajorvt.com

Privacy Please

Pepper Home's woven wood shades are crafted from handwoven, natural materials, and the made-to-order designs can be delivered to your door in as little as two weeks. Bonus: They're available in 18 versatile tones!

Starting at $480/panel; pepper-home.com

↑
Cool Coasters

On a recent trip to Portland, Oregon, I fell in love with local boutique Kiriko Made. Their fabric coasters are made with traditional Japanese fabrics and backed with herringbone denim.

$39; kirikomade.com

↑
Jewelry for the Wall

Plank Hardware's debut lighting collaboration with Good Bones makes its US debut on October 1st, following a sell-out UK launch earlier this year. I love the petite, perforated designs, which cast a hint of sparkle across the wall.

From $179; plankhardware.com

↑
Travel Essentials

Cadence's refillable capsules are my favorite way to keep my skin-care organized while traveling, and their new Jelly line—designed in partnership with fashion influencer Larissa Mills—adds a cute, nostalgic flair to my beauty bag.

$72; keepyourcadence.com

←
Central Park Style

Kallista is an industry leader, and its collaboration with Robert A.M. Stern Architects (RAMSA) resulted in elegant fittings inspired by the grandeur of New York City's pre-war buildings.

$3,075; kallista.com

Form + Function

Tanner Moussa and Mackenzie Lewis, founders of MOUS, don't make furniture—they make functional art. With their new collection, Tended Form, the third-generation designers offer occasional furniture, seating, lighting, and objects.

mousstudio.com

Photograph by Kris Ellis

Maximalist Moment

Furniture maker Sixpenny is known for its neutrals, but Wild Air, a verdant, moody print, lets its sofas, chairs, and bedroom furniture embrace a boldly maximalist motif.

From $1,649; sixpenny.com

Photograph by William Jess Laird

Color Crush

Little Greene Paint Company just launched 27 new paint colors. This room features Perpetual Blue™, a mid- to deep-blue hue with just a touch of green that shifts beautifully throughout the day. Paired with Oak Apple™ and Bronze Red™, the palette feels both timeless and fresh.

littlegreene.us

Modern Ritual

Cedar & Myrrh is an AAPI- and female-founded brand inspired by global rituals. Founder Misun Delmon, a wellness expert who previously worked at the Ritz-Carlton Spa, has created a line that feels quietly luxurious. This soap is infused with pure hinoki essential oil sourced from Japan and features a noded massage side for an extra-relaxing cleanse.

\$25; cedarandmyrrh.com

Refresh Yourself
Need a quick pick-me-up? Throw Nécessaire's Eucalyptus Water into your gym bag. The ultra-fine mist is naturally hydrating, antioxidant-rich, and instantly refreshing.

\$35; necessaire.com

Book to Note

Leigh and Kevin Misso, founders of design/build firm River Brook, celebrate 10 years of beautiful design. To mark the milestone, they're debuting their first monograph, Living with Legacy, and it's a must-have for those who appreciate craftsmanship, architecture, and design.

\$117; shopbetaplus.com

Fresh Flush

I'm pretty sure Typology's Replenishing Lip Balm in Berry Red is my new secret to the perfect red lip. It goes on sheer, but the color is buildable, beautifully bold, and incredibly wearable.

\$39; us.typology.com

Made in Maine

Chilton represents a modern, elevated take on traditional New England furniture. The Atlas Chair, a Good Design Award® recipient, reinterprets the classic bow-back chair with clean lines and enduring craftsmanship.

\$1,235; chiltons.com

