PERFORMING PORTFOLIO
2026 EDITION

I am EmceeCollin, a bilingual emcee. The persona I portray in front of audience is friendly, relatable, engaging, and witty.

I believe that one of the key factors to a successful event is having happy audience, hence I developed an audience-focused style of hosting.

Over the years, the humble successes in the FMCG Marketing events, Wedding events, and Grassroots events motivated me to make my passion into career.

My sales & management experiences gained from working in Banking & Finance industry in the earlier days of my performing career, helped me to better handle audiences from different backgrounds.

I believe in lifelong learning, and it should not be limited to my field of work but everything under the sun. I trust that the knowledge would empower me to engage better as an emcee. I strive to continue to further differentiate myself from peers as an artiste with multi-talents.

During a pre-confirmation interview, a client asked, "Do you consider yourself an influencer?" I replied, "Yes, but not in the usual sense. I may not have a HUGE social media following, but I can influence your consumers at your event, motivating them to engage with your products and services."

“Beyond my skills, I believe that appearance is equally important for a performer. That's why I invest in personal grooming and a polished wardrobe.”

“The marketing events segment has been my primary revenue generator, enabling me to establish an event company to better serve my clients and manage their events.”
