

Eternal Sunshine

GreenRow

NEW YORK, NEW YORK

With a love for optimism, spirited pattern, and enduring craftsmanship, GreenRow's first flagship—located on the historic cobblestone streets of SoHo—makes achieving sustainability with style a refreshingly worthwhile endeavor. @greenrow

BEST HOME STORES IN AMERICA

These haunts transform the analog shopping experience into something truly transportive, with stylized scenes, one-of-a-kind objects, in-store resources, and bold points of view.

BY ALYSSA LONGOBUCCO

The Vault Creative,
Highland Park, Illinois

Emerging Icon

The Vault Creative

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS

Collecting is treated like a creative pursuit at this Chicagoland boutique by designer Elizabeth Mollen of Stone Textile Studio. Browse vintage finds, emerging artists, and signature wallpaper, all in an aesthetic environment that is constantly evolving.

@thevaultcreative

Seaside Serenity

Rusticator

SEAL HARBOR, MAINE

Helmed by designer Laura Keeler Pierce and her husband, the shop feels less like a store and more like a graciously collected home, where timeless design and curation act as an antidote to fast living.

@rusticatorshop

Fresh Perspective

Marquet

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

Tucked onto historic Magazine Street, this spot captures the thrill of discovering something extraordinary without having to do the work yourself, thanks to owner Jenny Vorhoff's well-stamped passport and designer's eye for engaging pieces that bring fresh perspective and a story to every room in your home.

@marquetshoppe

Instagram IRL

Lone Fox

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

Drew Michael Scott brings his internet-beloved design perspective into the real world with a sprawling 7,500-square-foot decor destination. Inside, every item underscores his belief that memorable rooms begin with unforgettable finds, each selected for its patina, craftsmanship, and point of view.

@gallerylonefox

Inspiring Institution

Cobblestone & Vine

LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

For more than three decades, this Arkansas fixture has earned a trusted reputation through timeless furnishings, trustworthy customizations, and a personal approach to home. Visitors can browse casegoods, upholstery, and tabletop decor, or tap the in-house team for design advice and services.

@cobblestoneandvine

Happy Habitat

The Shoppe at the Lake

CANANDAIGUA, NEW YORK

From her charming creative hub, designer Lindsay Lane beckons shoppers to slow down and infuse their living space with heart, sharing antiques, artisan finds, and timeless furnishings in a well-curated space.

@lindsaylainehome

Historic Reverie

TA Lorton

TULSA, OKLAHOMA

Housed in a 10,000-square-foot former motorcycle shop, this T-Town mainstay of nearly 40 years features fully outfitted rooms, a decked-out kitchen, and designer Tracy Salisbury's firm on-site.

@talorton

Rusticator,
Seal Harbor, Maine

Friendly Faces

Good Neighbor

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

Equal parts design destination and social gathering place, this welcoming “third space” includes pop-ups from local makers, events and workshops, and even a coffee shop. The goal? To celebrate craftsmanship from Charm City and beyond while making the compelling case that good design and good community begin with everyday encounters primed for connection.

@goodneighborshop

Coastal Character

Widener Company

WISCASSET, MAINE

Built on a leap of faith and a passion for handmade objects, Alexander Widener’s place—which includes a guest cottage available to rent—celebrates the joy of acquainting visitors with Maine’s rich craft traditions (and Widener’s encyclopedic antique knowledge) one beautiful find at a time.

@widenercompany

Mix Master

Hunt & Hostess

WINTER PARK, FLORIDA

Born from designer Lise Davis’s love of “the mix,” this inviting boutique offers a carefully edited assortment of found objects, artisan-made accents, and lasting pieces meant to help you curate a home you love.

@huntandhostesswp

Modern Heirloom

Lemieux et Cie

NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Christiane Lemieux has spent her career shaping how we furnish our spaces. Her new SoHo flagship acts as a well-considered rebuttal to fast furniture,

Hunt & Hostess, Winter Park, Florida

pairing contemporary designs with iconic vintage pieces in an effort to remind shoppers that the best homes evolve slowly and are meant to hold through years, not seasons.

@lemieuxetcie

Small-Town Secret

Dugazon

SHARON, CONNECTICUT

With the patina of a decades-old establishment (and tapered candles from Denmark in 30 colors), this new venture from creatives Bobby Graham and Matthew Marden invites visitors to gather and embrace collected interiors, unfussy hospitality, and ordinary moments.

@dugazonshop

Old Meets New

Found

CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA

What began as a tiny showroom open twice a week has grown into one of the Lowcountry’s most approachable antique sources, inviting European finds—discovered by husband-and-wife team Kristin and Sterling Chambless throughout England, France, and beyond—back into people’s daily lives.

@shoppefound

Courtland & Co., Savannah, Georgia

Stitched in Time

Courtland & Co.

SAVANNAH, GEORGIA

Rooted in Southern hospitality, but never bound by convention, this dynamic shop celebrates the beauty of the bespoke, customizing heirloom linens and textiles through embroidery and elevating personalization to an art form.

@courtlandandco

Dugazon, Sharon, Connecticut

Kate Figler Home & Interiors, Nashville, Tennessee

gourmet goods, and linens mix with taste, scent, and cheeky charm for a richly immersive shopping experience that nods to a love of British culture. @watsonkennedy

Mountain Majesty

The Shop by Kara Mann

WILSON, WYOMING

Designer Kara Mann's unmistakable interiors manifest in this luxury boutique, which marries high-end design with humble alpine coziness and craftsmanship for a shop that's equal parts inspiration and escape. @karamannndesign

Energy Boost
Maison Mischief

CORAL GABLES, FLORIDA

A joyful rebuttal to safe decorating and look-alike interiors, this atelier stocks spirited finds that encourage shoppers to embrace personality and color for homes as expressive as the people who live in them. @maisonmischief

Designer on Call
Kate Figler Interiors & Home

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Visitors browse trade-only resources, curated finds, and playful patterns and fabrics at this studio-meets-shop, where design becomes a creative collaboration and uniformity gives way to one-of-a-kind workmanship. @katefiglerinteriors

Out East

Aerin

EAST HAMPTON, NEW YORK

Designed by Tom Scheerer, the latest site of Aerin Lauder's empire is perhaps its most authentic yet. Patrons can shop a wide selection of decor, fragrances, and entertaining essentials, all rooted in the timeless spirit and breezy elegance of South Fork coastal living. @aerin

Textural Treat

Auden & Avery

CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA

Anchored in an appreciation for Southern design vernacular and a love of rattan, this showroom—founded by a pair of home stagers—specializes in airy, beach-inspired finds, without the luxury price tag. @auden_and_avery

Feel-Good Finds

Watson Kennedy

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

Few destinations understand the art of delight quite like this gem, where tablewares,

Maison Mischief, Coral Gables, Florida

Art of Discovery

Revival Home

CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE

Duck into this beloved purveyor and you'll find heirloom-quality antiques mingling alongside contemporary designs and handmade accessories, together crafting a comfortable environment where curiosity and contrast take center stage. @revival.home

Oakstreet Shoppe, Abilene, Texas

Curated Classics

Oakstreet Shoppe

ABILENE, TEXAS

For Rebecca Gibbs, thoughtful design will always outweigh trends. In her namesake shop, she makes a case for seeking out what you love, while highlighting bespoke offerings (like her cabinetry line with Unique Kitchens & Baths) and storied pieces alongside original art. @oakstreetshoppe

Hunt and Gather

Debbie Mathews Antiques & Designs

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Derived from a lifelong love of the hunt—and the core belief that every room needs to have at least one antique—this emporium pairs remarkable European finds with a discerning eye, creating visually arresting vignettes where history always has a place at the table. @debbiemathewshome

Neutral Territory
Haven

AGOURA HILLS, CALIFORNIA

Lindsey Colhoun believes memorable interiors are built through simple pleasures, not grand gestures. Within her considered retail concept, shoppers can discover beauty in the objects they reach for most, from candles to linens. @havenbyled shoppers can discover beauty in the objects they reach for most, from candles to linens. @havenbyled

Ode to Joy
ByCloudia

AUSTIN, TEXAS

Inside this personality-packed hub, rare global finds, sculptural furnishings, and vibrant textiles converge, encouraging shoppers to trade perfection for fun while underscoring the belief that extraordinary design is for everyone. @by_cloudia

Haven, Agoura Hills, California

THIS PAGE, FROM TOP: CHAD ZELLNER, PUBLIC 311; OPPOSITE PAGE, TOP: WILLIAM JESS LAIRD, CENTER: COURTESY MAISON MISCHIEF.

Nature's Bounty

The Well Gardens

CARPINTERIA, CALIFORNIA

Part antiques destination, part botanical escape, this alfresco gem from Big Daddy's Antiques founder Shane Brown is set across nine acres and tucked beneath sprawling old trees, giving collecting and California's natural beauty an apt place to converge.

@thewellsummerland

Creature Comforts

Homebody

DENVER, COLORADO

Enjoy the thrill of the find at this globally inspired outpost, where discovered objects and artisanal finds—including dishware and pillows—spark an emotional connection to the world surrounding us.

@homebodydenver

The Well Gardens,
Carpinteria, California

Tradition, With a Twist

Syers Browning

LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY

More than just a haven for elegant interiors, this boutique has built its reputation on the heartfelt concept that every customer should feel like an honored guest. Inside, you'll find wares that help make hosting an art, from cocktail napkins and coffee-table books to the finest collection of china south of the Mason-Dixon line.

@syersbrowning

Thrill of the Hunt

Fireside Antiques

BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA

Three generations have built this treasure trove into one of the country's premiere sources for European furnishings, architectural elements, and accessories, where remarkable provenance and rich patina continue to inspire curators and designers alike.

@firesideantiques

New England Nostalgia

Honeychurch

LENOX, MASSACHUSETTS

With a collector's eye and a product designer's precision, this local favorite celebrates the unassuming beauty of well-made objects, textiles, and distinctive goods that become more meaningful the longer they're lived with.

@honeychurch

Artful Living

House Seven Shoppe

INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

Every vintage find and hand-crafted object inside designer Anissa Zajac's store reflects the same philosophy: The best homes aren't assembled overnight, but instead shaped slowly, through lush interiors, innate warmth, and pieces worth keeping.

@shoppehouseseven

Iconic Eye

McGee & Co. Flagship

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

Nearly a decade after launching online, Shea McGee's namesake brand finally has a physical home—one where her design outlook and layered, livable approach to interiors unfolds in every precisely thought out detail.

@mcgeeandco

Fireside Antiques,
Los Angeles, California

Scan this QR code or visit housebeautiful.com/best-home-stores-2026 for more info on our chosen shops.