

Mark Groves

KEYNOTE SPEAKER - HUMAN CONNECTION SPECIALIST

Mark Groves is a human connection specialist, keynote speaker, writer, and host of The Mark Groves Podcast. His work explores relationships, attention, technology, and what it means to remain fully human in a rapidly changing world. He helps leaders and organizations build greater capacity for connection, integrity, presence, and meaningful change — bringing candid storytelling, practical insight, and humor to conversations about how we work, lead, and relate. Mark writes at Humaning on Substack and speaks at leadership conferences, corporate events, and summits worldwide.

26M+ PODCAST DOWNLOADS - 1.3M+ SOCIAL COMMUNITY - GLOBAL KEYNOTE SPEAKER

SIGNATURE KEYNOTES

The Future Is Human

How to protect the human capacities technology can't replace — and build more trust, presence, and connection into the way we work and lead.

Focus Is The Future

How to reclaim attention from distraction so people can think more clearly, work more intentionally, and be fully present for what matters.

The Coherence Advantage

How greater alignment between who we are, what we say, and how we lead creates more trust, clarity, and effective collaboration.

Custom Keynotes & Fireside Conversations

Tailored keynotes and conversations designed around the questions your organization is actually facing — sparking insight, deeper dialogue, and meaningful action.

NENAD K.

Starwood Hotels Corp.

Mark really knew how to engage our audience. Our conferences were global, leadership-level events, which made his ability to connect with such a diverse audience even more impactful. People continued to talk about his keynote long after the event.

What made it particularly impactful was the way he brought together both the art and science of connection, using real-life examples that resonated with the different profiles and perspectives in our audience.

TRUSTED BY:

Starwood HOTELS

TEDx

Saje
NATURAL WELLNESS

 lululemon

GQ