MINISTRY IMPACT

Adrienne's message was a breath of fresh air. Her ability to blend wisdom, warmth, and humor made every woman in the room feel seen. As a professional and a believer, I walked away reminded that joy isn't something we wait for—it's something we choose and carry. Her words still echo in my heart.

The book, Finding Joy met me right where I was. Adrienne's words felt honest, healing, and full of hope. This book reminded me that joy is still possible even in seasons of pain and uncertainty. It's the kind of book you highlight, revisit, and recommend to others
