A single gesture of grace, the Curves Console flows in a continuous line of wood and stone. Its sculpted base sweeps gently beneath a matching stone top, both following the same soft radius—an evolution of the Curves Coffee Table's twin forms, now distilled into one fluid piece. The silhouette evokes the natural rhythm of coastal contours, where sand meets tide in effortless motion.

Crafted in a choice of wood and stone combinations, each console is an expression of calm sophistication—its tactile surfaces and sun-washed finishes capturing the ease of a coastal morning.

Offered in all stone top option and base pairings, from earth-inspired tones to rich, hand-rubbed stains, the Curves Console can also be tailored in custom dimensions and finishes. Whether standing alone in an entry or layered within a larger composition, it embodies the quiet luxury and sculptural clarity that define the PARISII collections.

Custom sizes and finishes available upon request.
