MEET SAMANTHA

I believe your photographs should feel like coming home. The laughter you didn't realize someone captured, the quiet glances, the happy tears, and the moments in between that become your favorite memories over time.

Your wedding day isn't about creating a perfect timeline or performing for the camera—it's about being fully present with the people you love most. Whether you're planning an intimate celebration or a weekend surrounded by family and friends, you deserve photographs that allow you to relive not only how your day looked, but exactly how it felt.

If you're drawn to meaningful moments over manufactured ones, value genuine connection, and want your story told with honesty and intention, you're in the right place. My goal is to create a space where you can slow down, soak it all in, and trust that every moment worth remembering is being preserved with care.

What it's like to work with me

Every couple has a unique story, and my priority is capturing yours authentically. From the moment you say hello, I'm all in. No pretense, no scripts—just someone who truly cares about telling your story with tenderness and care. This is about more than pictures. It's about capturing the heartbeat of your day and preserving the feelings that unfold in between. I take the time to understand your vision, so every moment—from the quiet exchanges to the big celebrations—feels true to you.

When you book, we'll begin a gentle conversation—about what feels most important, what moments you're dreaming of, and how your love story unfolds. Together, we'll craft a personalized timeline that honors the pace of your day. Your wedding day is a reflection of your love story, and thoughtful planning will ensure it flows seamlessly.

You live the moments; I'll capture them. With care and attention to every detail, I'll preserve your wedding day beautifully, so you can relive it over and over again. This season of your life—the quiet moments, the loud celebrations, the way your love shows up in glances and gestures—it's all worth remembering. My heart behind Sammi Sand Photography has always been simple: to create images that feel like you. Honest. Intentional. Full of emotion.

I'm not just here to document your wedding day—I'm here to support you, guide you, and help you slow down and really feel it. From curating a custom timeline to knowing when to step back or gently lead, I've got you. And when the day is over, my hope is that these photographs bring you back to the way it all felt.

PAST CLIENT REVIEW

"Words cannot describe how amazing Sam was taking photos for my wedding. The actual day of the wedding, she was super helpful, extremely knowledgeable and very kind to not only my wife and I but the entire guests. She put on many hats throughout the day whether it be making sure place settings were fixed, dresses were repositioned, or that certain vendors got where they needed to be so that they were out-of-the-way. Just her Expertise and professionalism the actual day of the wedding to not stress us out anymore than we already were warrants five stars. But then when you actually get the photos, extremely high class, well edited and very amazing. Book Sam and you won't regret it!"

Once that's complete, we'll dive into the fun part – planning your engagement and/or bridal session and starting to gather the little details that help bring your story to life.

As your wedding day gets closer, we'll schedule a relaxed planning call to go over your timeline, answer any lingering questions, and walk through your family and group photo list together.
