A MASSIVE CONGRATULATIONS
TO YOU BOTH ON EMBARKING ON THIS NEW CHAPTER TOGETHER

WELCOME

Take a moment to appreciate your incredible bond that's led you to this milestone... you're getting married.

I'm beyond honored to document your day and offer one important piece of advice: plan a wedding that makes you feel amazing and true to yourself. Leisurely read through all the details of this guide to plan your dream day, or simply skim through for a quick overview.

The most important thing is that your wedding feels like you - comfortable, amazing, and unapologetically... YOU.

In this guide, I'll cover all the intricacies to help your day run smoothly, so you can focus on saying "I do" and have a blast. Let's dive in!

TALK IT OUT

I know how precious your photos are — they will become the tangible memories of your day, the ones you'll love to revisit again and again.

To make sure I capture what matters most, take a moment with your partner to talk about the moments and details that are particularly meaningful to each of you.

Feel free to share your wishes, your feelings... or even your need for a little break away from the camera on the wedding day. Just let me know, and it will always be respected. This day is entirely yours, and my role is to support you so that it unfolds exactly as you've imagined — freely, calmly, and joyfully.

Here's a handy list to help you spot the moments that mean the most to you as a couple.

Think of it as a gentle guide — a way to reflect on your wishes and share them with me, so I can capture each special detail exactly as you imagine.

GETTING READY

- + As the morning gently unfolds, you step into your wedding attire surrounded by the people who matter most. Shared glances, thoughtful gestures, quiet laughter — these intimate moments set the tone for the day.
- + Your accessories — jewelry, perfume, rings, a watch — each meaningful detail tells a part of your story and deserves to be captured.
- + Take a few minutes for individual portraits — a pause to capture your emotion, your anticipation, and the calm before the celebration begins.
- + Your closest friends & family are part of the magic: a glass of champagne, an impromptu game, bursts of laughter... These are the moments of joy and connection that beautifully reflect your journey together.

CEREMONY

- + I'll be focusing on capturing the perfect shot without interrupting your moment. You might not even realize I'm there! Please, let me know if there are any meaningful rituals or traditions you're planning to include.

FAMILY PHOTOS / GROUP PHOTOS

- + Anticipation is key. I'll invite you to complete a short questionnaire beforehand so we can thoughtfully prepare the list of group photos that matter most to you.
- + Is there anyone you would especially like me to focus on or pay particular attention to?

COUPLE PORTRAITS

- + We'll quietly step away from your guests for a few moments — whether for something light and spontaneous, where your joy can shine freely, or for a softer, more intimate pause, just the two of you.

RECEPTION & DANCEFLOOR

- + As you take your first steps onto the dance floor, the celebration truly comes alive — laughter, uninhibited moves, and contagious energy filling the air. If you wish, I'll be there to capture these vibrant, joy-filled moments.

WEDDING PARTY PHOTOS

Photos with your wedding party are the perfect moment to let go and have fun. Embrace movement, energy, and the unexpected: walk together laughing, run, jump, lift the bride or groom, improvise a group hug, or strike a completely playful pose.

These images capture the spirit of your connections — full of joy, spontaneity, and authenticity. Don't hesitate to give your loved ones a heads-up beforehand: their ideas, even the wildest ones, often turn out to be the best.

JUST THE TWO OF YOU

For your couple portraits, my main goal is for you to feel comfortable, relaxed, and fully present with each other. I know the wedding day can be busy and sometimes intense, and I always adapt to your energy, your wishes, and the flow of the day.

To allow time for creating soft, heartfelt images, I recommend setting aside 20–40 minutes, excluding travel between locations. If you'd like to explore different spots, plan for 1–1½ hours. But keep this in mind: less is more. Fewer locations mean more time together — a moment to breathe, reconnect, and savor every gesture, every glance.

It's often during these quiet, shared moments that the most beautiful and genuine images are born.

UNSCRIPTED MOMENTS

The golden hour remains the ultimate choice, when sunlight drapes you in a warm, golden glow and bathes everything in a soft, magical light. But truly, any moment can be perfect!

A spontaneous mini-shoot under the bright midday sun, feet dangling in the water, the wind playing with your hair aboard a boat... a quiet pause at night, champagne in hand, under a sky full of stars... or a few stolen moments between the events of your day.

The possibilities are endless! I'll adapt to every situation, every light, every breeze, capturing the genuine, tender connection between you. So breathe, relax, and let yourselves be fully present — these moments are yours to savor.

THE BOUQUET TOSS

Traditionally held during cocktail hour, the bouquet toss can easily be reimagined to reflect your personality and style. A boutonniere toss for the groom, ribbons to be claimed, or even a playful twist — a sausage toss, anyone? Yes, it exists... and I've already had the pleasure of capturing it!

The point is: traditions are yours to reinterpret.

Let your creativity lead the way — it's your day, your rules. And it's often these authentic, spontaneous moments that make for the most unforgettable photographs.

I hope this guide has inspired you and supported you in your reflections and planning. And above all, remember: this is YOUR day. Listen to yourselves. Honor your wishes, your needs, your intuition — they give your wedding its true meaning and quiet magic. I'm here for you every step of the way, to answer your questions and gently guide you through the preparations. I already can't wait to be there on the day itself, to tell your story through images — capturing every precious moment, every emotion, every spark of life.
